 Songbird in the light of day sings a snatch of melody
 C G F C G C
 Goes along her merry way but never learns her song
 C G F C F G
 Till the cage is covered 'oer and in darkness now is she

 Wondering what the night is for, and how the days are long
 C G F C G C
 Wondering what the night is for and, "where did I go wrong?"

When I've learned to praise Him for everything

C G F C F G
 I was once a songbird too--I could fly and I could sing
 C G F C G C
 Thought I had a lot to do, but had a lot to learn
 C G F
 And then a mighty Hand brought pain
 C F G
 And darkness stopped my liting wing
 C G F C G C
 Up against my cage again and where was I to turn?
 C G F C G
 I was up against myself again, and where was I to turn?

Footsteps

Words and music by Jennifer

G C G C G
I had a dream last night of footsteps in the sand
C G C G
God and I were walking—it must have been hand in hand
C Cm G
For there were two pairs of footsteps in the sand
C Cm G
His footsteps and my footsteps in the sand
G C G C G
And in the dream I had, we walked the peaceful shore
C D G C D G
It seemed that we would walk that way, hand in hand forevermore
C Cm G
Two pairs of footsteps in the sand,

And angry winds of strife

And when I was almost beaten and needed a helping hand

There was just one pair of footsteps in the sand

Job's Song

Words by Robert Browning Hamilton (vs. 1) and Jenr
Music by Jennifer

F Bb F Bb
I walked a mile with pleasure, she chattered all the way

For when I walked with pleasure and confidence was high

F Bb F Bb

Her wisdom made me foolish, contented with a lie

Gm C F Bb

But when I walked with sorrow truth did set me free

F Bb

Oh, the things I learned from her

Dm Gm C F

When sorrow walked with me, when sorrow walked with me

Bb C F D

Bridge: And as I look back, I would choose no other road

Bb C F

Than that which I walked, that my friend sorrow showed

G C G C Am

I walked a mile with pleasure, she chattered all the way

G C G C Am

But left me none the wiser for all she had to say

C D G C

I walked a mile with sorrow, not a word said she

G C

But oh, the things I learned from her

G C D G

When sorrow walked with me, when sorrow walked with me

On Rock or Sand?

Words and music by Jennifer

D G A D A G A

A sandy shore, a rocky height, a multitude each choosing a sight

Bm G A

The question comes, "Will I build on the sand

D

And all can hear the Master's plea

D A G A D

"Build on the rock and live eternally"

D G A

High on the rock, it's much too rough

D A G A

But who's that man climbing over the bluff?

Bm G A

All his supplies must be carried up high

D

Such toil, such hardship, and why?

D G A

And blackness fills the daylight hours

D A G A

The sky unleashes her wind and her showers

Bm G A

The ocean swells and forgets all restraint

D

All hearts grow suddenly faint

-Repeat Refrain-

D G A

His house will stand and this His plea

D A G A

"Fall on the rock and be broken on Me

Bm G A

"Then let me bear you up this lofty height

D

"You'll find that My burden is light"

-Repeat Refrain-

From the Clouds

For soon the humble Galilean will come to reign as King
 Bm A G A
 In that morn will sound the trumpet and forever with the Lord
 Bm A G A
 He will end our constant conflict, we will cast away the sword
 G D G A
 Oh, let the angels sing yet higher as your case is sealed above
 Bm A G Em A Bm
 And then in eager expectation await the God you love
 Bm A G A
 Are you ready for the Master? Is your crimson sin now white?
 Bm A G A
 For every secret He'll uncover in that clear, dazzling light
 G D G A
 Oh, let His awesome love compel you to return to righteousness
 Bm A G Em A Bm
 Trading a rank and filthy garment for the pure heavenly dress
 Bm A G A
 And my heartstrings play an anthem as I ponder gratefully
 Bm A G A
 How my Lord has left His promise to prepare a place for me
 G D G A
 But it's more than crowns and mansions, more than being glorified
 Bm A G Em A Bm
 Precious above all else is Jesus, forever by my side
 A G Em A Bm
 Oh, forever by my side

Paradise Lost, Paradise Found

Words and music by Christian LeGoff
 Translation from French by Jennifer

A C#m

Oh, I would find once again that paradise lost to fallen n
 A C#m D
And oh I would find once again that paradise lost
 E
For lost I have been
 A C#m
 In the midst of their home stood a tree all alone
 D E
 God had said of the tree, "Of its fruit do not eat"
 A C#m
 But the tempted man ate, and was sorry too late
 For the garden was lost, such his error had cost

-Repeat Refrain-

A C#m
 And the first dying leaf brought a great wave of grief
 To the man and his wife who had forfeited life
 A C#m
 But in God's perfect plan, He extended His hand
 D E
 And restored to them life, through the man Jesus Christ

-Repeat Refrain-

The Cross

Words and music by Jennifer

G C G Em C
 Jesus came from glory and He left it all for me
 Am D C Gsus

In a stained glass window or in gold upon the wall

Am D C G

Yet the symbol has no power at all

G C Am D

Refrain: Oh, the cross of Christ, I would understand

B C G Gsus G Gsus

Jesus' condescension, God became a man

G C Am D

Took our human form but that was not enough

B C G Gsus G Gsus

Tasted hopeless darkness, friend, that is love

G C G Em C

That is why my heart breaks and my mind is lost in thought

Am D C G

Dwelling on the wonder love has wrought

G C G Em C

On the cross of Jesus shines a love so broad and deep

Am D C G

Come with me, we'll worship as we weep

-Repeat Refrain-

It Takes Two to Tangle

Words and music by Jennifer

C G Am G

When no one seems to love me as I think that I should be

F C Dm G

It's then I need to give love and give it cheerfully

C G Am G

And may I think more highly of my brother's than my own

F C Dm G C

For love is in proportion to the sacrifice that's shown

Have you wept o'er things I've done?

F C Dm

Well then, won't you please forgive me, and we will be as o

C G Am G

And may I think more highly of my brother's than my own

F C F G C

For love is in proportion to the sacrifice that's shown

-Repeat Refrain-

C G Am G

And when there comes a difference, oh who will be the first

F C Dm G

To yield the pride inherent, for with it all are cursed

C G Am G

Now, unto Him who loves us with all of his great heart

F C F G C

Without cooperation, but hatred on our part

-Repeat Refrain-

Turn

Words and music by Jennifer

C G C G

"Turn" is the word I hear, "turn," says the Savior, dear

F G F G

"Turn, and you'll see meek, lowly Me

C G C G

"Turn from the sons of men, turn back to God again

F G F G

"You've turned before, turn back once more

C G C G

Turn from the sons of men, turn back to God again

F G F G

Turn from all wickedness, turn to His holiness
F G F G
There find your place, saved by His grace
C G C G
Turn when you cannot cope, turn to your only hope
F G F G
Your righteousness. Turn, He will bless

-Repeat Refrain-

C G C G
Turn, whether old or young, wise man or simple one
F G F G
None are turned away, all may come and stay
C G C G
Often to Him I've turned, He is always there, I've learned
F G F G C
Then let us learn, come now and let us turn

What King of King Will You Choose?

Words and music by Jennifer

Down Damascus Road

Words and music by Jennifer

G C G

Down Damascus road, I traveled on my mission

D

When there came a light, bright shining all 'round me

C D

Falling, I heard someone's voice plea

G Em

"Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"

C D G

Oh, I was turned around that day on Damascus road

G C G

"Who art thou Lord?" the question burned within me

"Who art thou Lord?" and He replied, "I AM"

C D G Em

"Jesus whom thou persecutest, in His voice I heard no contest

C D G

My question answered He that day, "Who art thou, Lord?"

G C G

"It is hard for thee, to kick against the pleadings

"It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks"

C D G Em

How I was helpless in midstream, lo, I'd lost my sight

G G7 C G

Ananias came when three long days were over

Ananias came, the helper sent from God

C D

Scales of blindness fell from my eyes

G Em

Then I rose up and was baptized

C D G

My pensive heart was glad the day Ananias came

G G7 C G

Lead me every day down my Damascus road, Lord

G D

Lead me every hour to penitence and prayer

C D G Em

Break my confidence if need be, let me die and then remain

C D G

New heart, new spirit and new man, lead me every day

C D G

New heart, new spirit and new man, on Damascus road

Angels

Words and music by Jennifer

C F C

When darkness tries to reign I pray for help aloud

I can see Him through the cloud

All bright with smiles of reassurance, offering to bear the he

And the Lord Himself gives direction to the path of liberty
 C F G C F C
 Beneath a crushing load of misery and sin
 F C Dm G
 Angels despaired to see their Master helpless at the hands of men
 F C
 They would have saved Him, had He asked them
 F G
 But when the noontide turned to night
 Am C F G Am
 All of the angels veiled their faces, they could not bear the sight
 Am C F G C
 All of the angels veiled their faces, they could not bear the sight
 C F G C F C
 So, this is love's exchange the Prince of Glory made
 F C Dm G
 Suffered the second death on Calvary and alone in pain He stayed
 F C F G
 We with the Father, Son and Spirit never forsaken walk the way
 Am C F G Am
 And then Jesus sends us our angels lest weary feet should stray
 Am C F G C
 And my friend, He'll send you an angel, to turn your night to day

Thank You, Father, now I know
 Dm G
 Precious blood for me did flow
 C F C Dm
 And beneath the scarlet wave surging strong was grace to save

I'm looking forward to my life with you
 C G
For my heart is new, what more could I ask?
 E F C
For you have given more abundantly than weak faith could

You'll complete the task, thank You, Lord
 C F C
 Thank You, Father, now I'm sure
 Dm G
 Endless life is sealed, secure
 C F C Dm G

 G C F G F C
Now this song I'll raise, thank You, Lord
